

Overbrook City News and Events Calendar August 2017

Also, watch for updated news on City of Overbrook Facebook Page

THANK YOU for another terrific fireworks display at our Fourth of July Celebration – Your continuing support made it happen! And, thank you Overbrook PRIDE, Incorporated for hosting it.

It's Fair Time! The Overbrook/Osage County 4-H Fair is Wednesday August 9 through Saturday, August 12 – See the enclosed flyer with the 2017 Fair Schedule. Fair Parade on Main Street is Saturday night, August 12 at 6pm. The 4-H Horse Show is Saturday, August 5 at the Fair Grounds.

Osage County Fire District #4 (Overbrook Fire & EMT) – hosts their Open House with games, food, fun and a Community Blood Drive on Saturday, August 12, 8am to 1pm during the Fair.

City News Update on Casey's General Store – a recent conversation with the Construction Supervisor who will oversee the remodeling of the old BP facility said design plans are being approved and construction work should begin in early to mid September with completion in an 8 to 10-week period.

Dog / Animal Control Ordinance update – after Council discussion in July it was decided that the City would review similar ordinances from other cities with the possibility of creating a new ordinance including humane treatment and animal husbandry conditions along with the number of dogs allowed per residence. More discussion will be held at the August City Council Meeting.

2018-Yr City Budget – the budget has been drafted and will be presented to Overbrook residents at a Public Hearing at 7pm on Wednesday, August 9 before the monthly Council Meeting.

City Maintenance has completed repair of a foundation ground water leak at the corner of the Library. A daylight drain installed under the sidewalk hopefully will fix the problem. Street resurfacing where water line repairs have been made and pothole patching is planned for this month.

City Lake condition update – there has been no confirmation of additional development of Blue-Green Algae in the City Lake. A “Watch” condition remains and State monitoring continues.

Open Position on City Planning & Zoning Board – due to a resignation, a position on the Board is available. If you are interested in being a candidate, contact City Hall.

Overbrook Park and Recreation – Fall Youth Soccer Program signup will occur soon. Information will be available at City Hall and on City Facebook page.

OPR & Overbrook Rotary will host the Kids Fishing Derby - Saturday, September 9 with a 1pm registration and a 1:30pm start time. It's Big Fish, Food, Fun and LOTS OF PRIZES! Bait will be provided. Parents can “help” but, the kids must catch the fish.

Overbrook Swimming Pool – closes for the season Saturday, August 12 with a FREE SWIM DAY! Then, it's “Dog Day at the Pool” on Sunday, August 13, Noon-3pm – Dogs only swim – No humans! Get more information on Facebook at Overbrook City Pool.

Congratulations to our Library Director, Kyle Sederstrom on his one-year anniversary on the job! Our Library provides many necessary and beneficial services to area residents. Thank you Kyle – and Library staff – and Library Board – and all those who use and support our Library!

Friends of the Library thanks everyone for a successful Book Sale in late July. Their next event is a “Soup Dinner / Dessert Auction” in the Community Room the evening of September 23.

Overbrook Police Department reminds drivers that as Santa Fe Schools reopen August 22 – School Zones WILL BE HEAVILY MONITORED! Safe driving is No Accidents – and No Tickets! New 20MPH Speed Limit signs are being installed on Sunset Lane, Elm Street, and Oak Street where it was a previously unmarked 30MPH.

Tree Trimming – If your trees or shrubs that are causing traffic safety concerns, you may get a letter from the Police Department requesting they be trimmed or removed. Please do your part to help.
