

Overbrook City News and Events November 2024

Patterson Grant Update – We are still taking donations for the matching Patterson Grant. We have received almost half of the donations needed to complete all the projects. You can donate through the City of Overbrook, Overbrook Pride LLC and at Kansas State Bank, until October 31st.

Overbrook Police Department-The Overbrook Police Department will once again host the Annual Holiday Lights Tour. Beginning November 1st, citizens may sign up to go on the tours beginning in December. Officers will escort those who sign up in police cars and provide gift bags and refreshments.

The Overbrook Community Cats TNR Foundation will meet on Wednesday, November 6th at 5:30 PM in the meeting room at the Overbrook Library (317 Maple St.). An upcoming trap and scheduling training for caregivers will be discussed.

As always, Overbrook PD hosts Coffee with a Cop the last Monday of every month at 9:00 AM at Rock Creek Café. Citizens are invited to attend to discuss issues, learn about programs or just engage in conversation. Coffee is provided. The November meeting will be on the 25th.

Honor Flight to Washington DC – From the Overbrook American Legion Post #239: ATTENTION all military veterans – An Honor Flight to Washington DC next summer (2025) is now being organized by a group in Lyndon. This is a FREE trip for veterans. Veterans of WW2, Korea, and Vietnam are specifically requested to consider this trip as an honor to their service. Veterans from the Gulf war and later conflicts are also eligible as are all who have served in any brand of military service. If you would like an application for this trip, please contact Legion Post Vice Commander, Don Schultz at 785-665-7653.

Overbrook Pride – Pride will continue to sell the new city flag garden flags. Flags are available to purchase at City Hall and the Dentist Office. We will also be at the Small Business Fair on Sat. Nov. 30th. Stop by to visit us and get more information about what we do for the city and purchase your flag.

Overbrook Parks and Rec- Youth Basketball registrations are available at city hall and on the website. Or you can sign up here through google. <https://forms.gle/AGd5Z76LTGzrjXpz8> You can also find the link on the Overbrookks.com webpage and the Parks and Rec facebook page, deadline is November 25th. Games are played at host site on Saturdays starting in January. The league is comprised of Osage City, Americus, Olpe, Council Grove, Mission Valley, Burlingame, Lyndon and SFT.

The Overbrook Historical Society –The Overbrook Historical Society has concluded its Speaker Series for the year. Stay tuned for our 2025 Speaker Series lineup, which will be announced soon. The society will have a vendor table at the Small Business Fair from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Saturday, Nov. 30th at the Methodist Church. We're ending our year with a few events to help make your holidays merry and bright. As we did last year, we'll be hosting a holiday haybale decorating party on our museum lot (just north of the post office) on Saturday, December 7th. If you would like to decorate a haybale, contact Jessica Frye via text at (785) 231-4355 or email jessicafrye26@gmail.com. We'll also be hosting the Holiday Parade of Homes on Saturday, Dec. 14th. If you would like for your home to be included on the tour, email us at overbrookhistory@gmail.com.

Overbrook Library – Kansas Talking Books, a division of the State Library of Kansas, provides free personalized library services for Kansas residents who have a print disability (vision impairment, physical impairment, or reading disability) that makes it difficult to read standard print. Maggie and Michael will be visiting the Overbrook Public Library on Monday, November 18th from 10:30-1:30 during the Kansas Talking Books Roadshow to meet current patrons and eligible individuals to:

- show their online resources,
- demonstrate equipment,
- updated reading profiles,
- or just meet you in person.

This is a come and go event. Maggie and Michael look forward to seeing you there!

Overbrook Community Chest – Community chest letters have been mailed out. The community chest collects donations and distributes funds to organizations in our area. Please remember to support our local charities. You can donate until December 31st.

Harvest Meal – Community Harvest Meal on Nov. 9th from 5-7pm at the Overbrook United Methodist Church 1005 N. Maple. Come enjoy a turkey meal with all the trimmings along with pie! There will also be a “fishing” pond for the children.

Overbrook Veterans Committee – Will be holding a special Veterans Day breakfast to honor those who have served and continue to serve on November 11 from 7am-9am. All are welcome to attend. (See attached Flyer)

Overbrook American Legion, Anderson-Raible Post #239– Show your patriotism and help the Overbrook American Legion set up the annual Veterans Day “Avenue of Flags” at the city cemetery on Saturday, November 9th at 8:30am. Thanks to the Overbrook Community, we have new flags to replace the worn ones. Come help the Legion and your community as we honor veterans and fly our nations flag proudly in our hometown cemetery. Individuals, families, groups – everyone is welcome to help! (We will then take down the flags the following Saturday, November 16 at 8:30am)
